LYNCH INDICTED

On a Charge of Giving a Check on a Bank without Fund There to Pay It.

PARKERSBURG, Jan. 29.—V. S. Lynch has been indicted by the grand jury in the criminal court on a felony charge which was included in the report of that body made to Judge F. H. McGregor at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The specific charge alleged in the indictment was the giving of a check on forty dollars to the Central Banking and Security Company without having funds in the bank to meet the same.

Lynch is the man who caused warrants to be issued at Buckhannon recently for Constable Floyd H. Pool, which case has received much publicity in the local press. The check alleged in the indictment is one that was specified in a warrant which Pool went to Buckhannon to serve on Lynch. It is probable that a capias will be issued for Lynch and the same directed to the sheriff of Upshur county.
